Los Angeles, CA – The League of Women Voters of Los Angeles will host two free regional meetings in Los Angeles and the San Fernando Valley on the Affordable Care Act: What's Happening Now to California's Health Care System? The events will feature special guest speakers from Insure the Uninsured Project. Together we will examine the changes occurring in health care, including how to access the Exchange-Covered California.

The Los Angeles meeting is on Thursday, October 17, 2013 from 9:30 a.m. to noon at the Palms Rancho Public Library, 2920 Overland Ave., Los Angeles. The San Fernando Valley meeting is on Thursday, October 17, 2013 from 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. at the Canoga Park Library, 20939 Sherman Way, Canoga Park. These meetings are free and open to all members of the community. For more details, please see the event flyer.

The League of Women Voters of Los Angeles (LWVLA) continues to broaden access to civic knowledge and to enhance the prospect of broad-based, enlightened participation in our city's civic life and governance.

For more information on education and information events visit our calendar page or call (213)-368-1616. The LWVLA encourages informed and active participation in government and an increased understanding of major public policy issues through education. This program is made possible, in part, with funding from the League of Women Voters of Los Angeles Education Fund.
