The League of Women Voters of Los Angeles (LWVLA) continues to broaden access to civic knowledge and to enhance the prospect of broad-based, enlightened participation in our city's civic life and governance. During the fall 2012 election cycle, the LWVLAEF distributed more than 34,000 pieces of educational materials to the public. Over 290,000 people used our electronic resources, including our popular SmartVoter.org website.

To provide voting accessible information for the current Los Angeles election, the LWVLA has created the Easy Voter Guide. The Easy Voter Guide (EVG) educates the community about the election, its issues, the candidates and the process in a quick reference and impartial format that aims to increase informed voter turnout. The EVG is available at our candidate forums, community presentations, local libraries, schools, and on our website. The EVG is available electronically on the LWVLA website in both English and Spanish.

For more information on the Easy Voter Guide and our candidate forums visit our calendar page or call (213)-368-1616.
