

League Office (213) 368-1616

League of Women Voters of Los Angeles to Hold Public Forums on the state of the State Government in November in nine different locations.

Californians across the political spectrum seem to be deeply dissatisfied with the way our government is functioning. We will look at the potential reforms being proposed and review the suggestions from a constitutional convention to revision of the constitution, and what part LWV might play in whatever decision is made.
